 of Banjara Tribal Ministries

Standing with The Abandoned

Banjara Tribal Ministries is located in the state of Andhra Pradesh near the city of Hyderabad. The primary focus of the orphanage is to care for Banjara children who are also known as "The Untouchables" by society. Many of these low caste children have been abandoned, orphaned or simply turned over to the BTM because parents lack the ability to care for them. These children come to the orphanage naked, hungry and in great need. The BTM staff is committed to providing care, education and biblical instruction to each of the children.

The orphanage provides government recognized schooling which the children attend six days a week. Along with education and biblical training, each child is involved in a very structured daily schedule. From washing clothes to daily chores, each child is responsible to be clean and on time for all activities. Many of these children have never experienced any type of structure or order in daily living prior to their enrollment in the orphanage.

It has been a real joy for Encounter Revival Ministries to partner with BTM to invest in the lives of these precious children. Through BTM many people across America have had the unique opportunity to invest in the life of a young child. This opportunity may determine for some life, for others the hope of education, for most food and shelter, and for all the opportunity to learn about their heavenly Father.

For less than $1.00 a day, $25.00 a month, YOU could provide this wonderful opportunity for a Banjara child. It is overwhelming when you realize what can be accomplished for only $300 a year.

Along with your monthly investment, we ask for you to consider giving a $30 gift in the fall to help us make Christmas a special day for the children. This gift will be used to buy clothing, blankets, and other needs the children might have.

Will you stand with the abandoned?

After we receive your registration form, you will receive a picture of a child, monthly updates and periodic newsletters. This information is sent so you can pray more effectively for the ministry of BTM.
